Create and Start Breakout Rooms During your Zoom Meeting

Begin by clicking the Breakout Rooms button on your Zoom Menu Bar:

Please note that your breakout rooms may also be located under the  button

A pop-up window will appear

Select the number of rooms you would like to create, and how you would like to assign your participants to those rooms:

- Automatically: Let Zoom split your participants up evenly into each of the rooms.
- Manually: Choose which participants you would like in each room.

Next click “Create Rooms”

- Created rooms will appear along with a list of participants in each room, if you selected automatically. If you selected manually you can assign each participant to a breakout room by clicking “Assign” on the corresponding room.

Joining a Breakout Room and Managing Breakout Rooms

As the Host you can join Breakout Rooms that are in session. If you do not see the breakout rooms pop-up, you can click on the Breakout Rooms button on your Zoom menu bar again.

To join, click “Join” on the corresponding room that you would like to join.

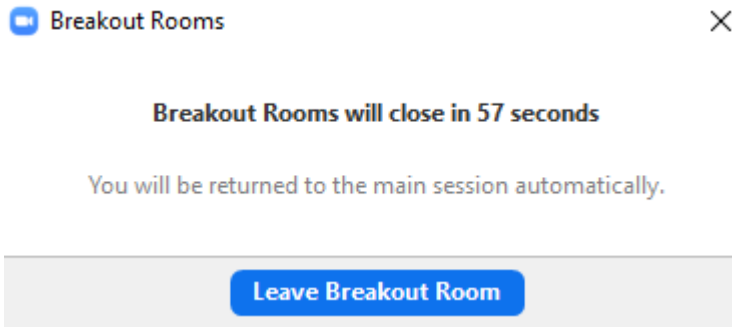

When you would like to leave a breakout room, click “Leave” on the right of the Zoom menu bar and select “Leave Breakout Room” to return to the main room.

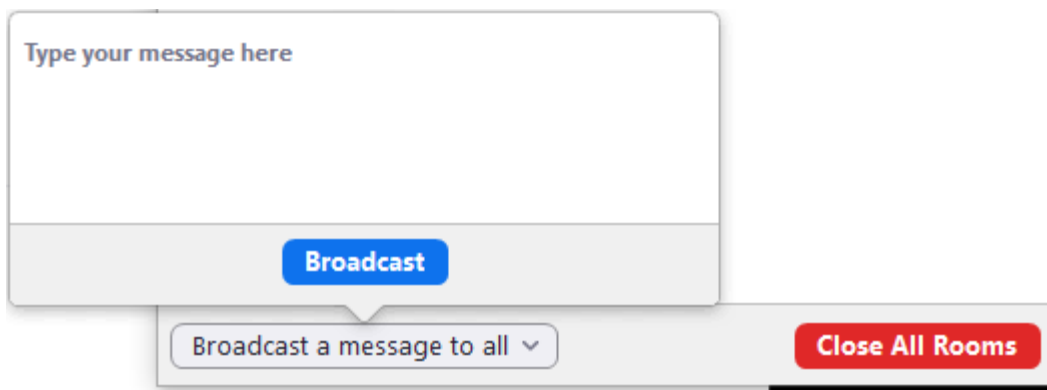

- If you have not set Breakout Rooms to close after a certain number of minutes in the options, you can close the Breakout rooms and return all participants back to the main room by clicking “Close All Rooms”.

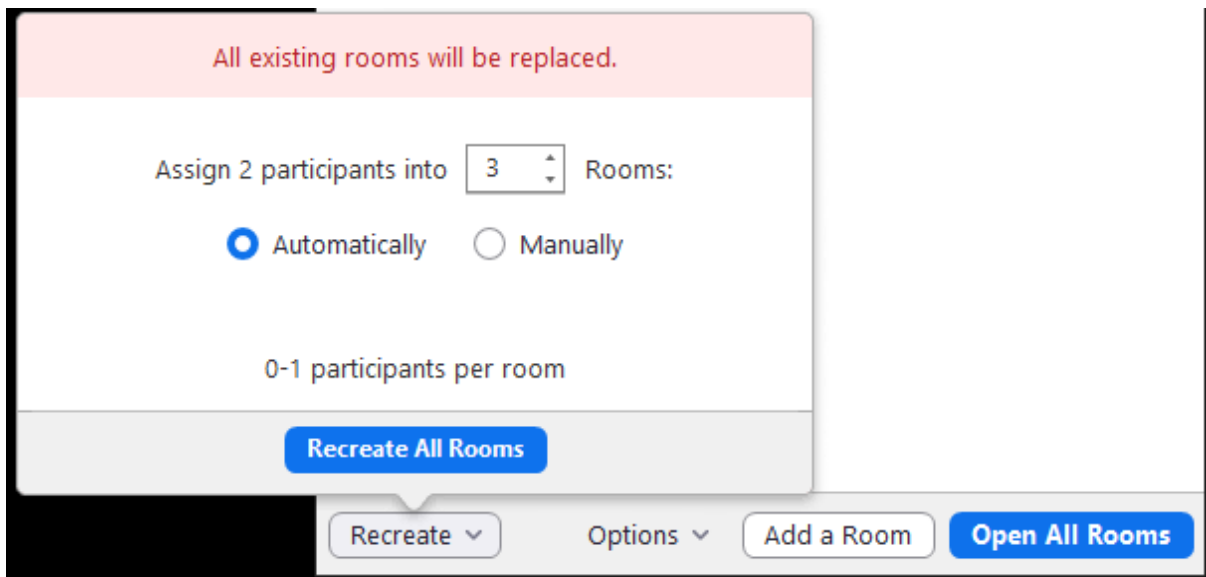

Participants will receive the below pop-up on their screens with a countdown to when the rooms will close.

- You can also send a message to all the breakout rooms using the "Broadcast Message to all" (Only text)

- After closing the Breakout rooms, you can reopen the rooms or recreate them during your Zoom meeting. Recreating the rooms will be used if you would like set up new rooms with new participants in each room.

Participant Zoom Menu Bar in Breakout Rooms

Participants have the following Menu Bar options while in the breakout rooms:

Microphone: Mute/unmute your audio (a red slash through the icon indicates that you are muted). You can also select your audio input (microphone), audio output (speakers), and access your audio settings by clicking the up arrow next to the microphone icon.

Camera: Start/stop your video (a red slash through the icon indicates that your video is off). You can also select your video input (web cam/built in webcam), access your video settings, or turn on your virtual background (if your computer is capable) by clicking the up arrow next to the video camera icon. To check if your computer/device is able to support a virtual background click here.

Participants: View a list of participants in the meeting. This is also where you can "raise your hand" to ask a question or answer a question, or answer yes or no to a question, ect.

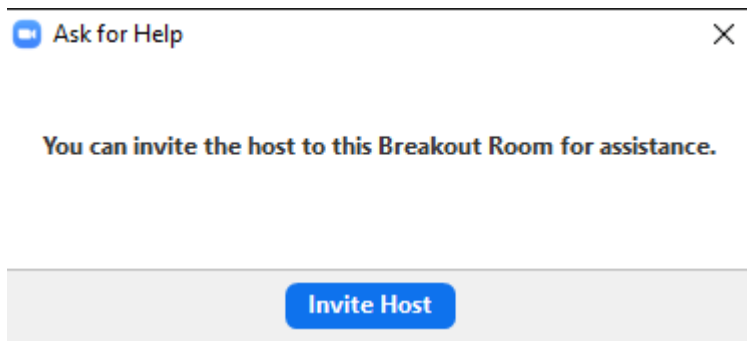

Chat: Send a message to one person or to all participants or ask a question (if enabled by your professor)

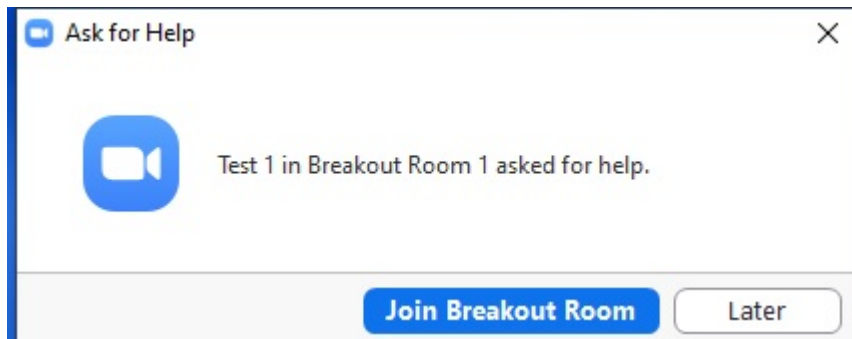

Screen Share: This will need to be allowed by the host of the meeting. Select a specific application to share (e.g., Microsoft Word), your whole desktop, whiteboard, or directly from your iPhone or iPad. Click here to learn more about how to share your screen during a meeting.

Record: If you have been granted permission by the host of the meeting, you will be able to begin recording here.

Ask for Help: Participants can click Ask for Help, it will notify the meeting host that they need assistance and they will be asked to join your breakout room.

When a participant asks for help, you as the host will see this message appear:

Reactions: Applaud or give a thumbs up to your professor, the presenter, or your classmates.

Leave: Leave the Breakout Room or the Zoom meeting.
