

Disclosure Statement for Electronic Access to 1098-T Tuition Statements

General

- Your 1098-T Tuition Statement can be accessed by you online after you give your electronic consent. If you do not consent to electronic delivery, your 1098-T Tuition Statement will be furnished to you on paper via U.S. Mail.
- You will only need to consent one time. This consent applies to all eligible students at the University of Massachusetts Boston. The consent will be effective for all 1098-T Tuition Statements issued to you by the University for current and future years unless you withdraw your consent as noted below.
- You will be notified via your UMB email when your 1098-T Tuition Statement is available electronically. The subject line of email notification will state “IMPORTANT TAX RETURN DOCUMENT AVAILABLE.”
- You will have access to your electronic 1098-T Tuition Statements even when you are no longer actively enrolled in the University of Massachusetts Boston.
- For help in accessing your WISER account, please contact IT Help Desk at 617-287-5220 or visit the IT website at UMB IT Help Desk.

Withdrawal of Consent

- After you have given your electronic consent, you may withdraw it at any time by emailing a written notice to Bursar@umb.edu or contact the Bursar’s Office at 617-287-5350.
- The written notice must include your full name, and your student identification number in requesting to withdraw from the 1098T eConsent.
- The withdrawal of consent will take effect within 15 business days of receipt by the Bursar’s Office. You will be notified that your withdrawal of consent is completed by email.
- A withdrawal of consent does not apply to a statement that was furnished electronically before the date on which the withdrawal takes place.

Software / Hardware Requirements

- The hardware and software requirements needed to access the 1098-T Tuition Statement electronically include an internet connection, web browser, and Adobe Acrobat reader or similar PDF reader software.

Keep Your Contact Information Updated

- Keep your contact information current even after you no longer attend the University of Massachusetts Boston.
- Keeping your contact information updated on WISER will help us to deliver your tax forms successfully.
- You will be notified if furnishing the 1098-T Tuition Statement in an electronic mode is no longer feasible.
