Boston Archaeologist Joe Bagley Shares What's Going On

Monday, October 6 | 5:00 – 6:00 p.m. | Online via Zoom

Deadline to register: Friday, October 3

The Friends of OLLI Committee will host its first fundraiser of the new school year with special guest speaker, Joe Bagley. Joe joined the City Archaeology Program in 2011 as the fourth City Archaeologist since 1983.

Joe plans to discuss the current project, Boston 250 Archaeology, a series of projects in recognition of the 250th anniversary of the start of the American Revolution. The City of Boston Archaeology Program has been conducting research regarding residents of Boston living through this event who are underrepresented in our current narratives. This includes groups such as women, children, disabled residents, currently or formerly enslaved people, Black, and Indigenous Bostonians.

Joe received his bachelor's degree in Archaeology from Boston University and a master's degree in Historical Archaeology from UMass Boston. Joe has conducted archaeological surveys from the woods of Maine to the Florida Everglades. He specializes in both Native American and Historical archaeological analysis and the archaeology of Boston.
